ARRIVAL OF THE AUSTRALIA

Items of Interest Concerning Many of Her Passengers.

Prominent Southern Pacific Official on Board
—Baby Born on the Trip—Many City
People Return Home.

The Oceanic steamship Australia was telephoned off Koko Head at 6 o'clock this morning and made fast to her dock at the usual hour after a passage of 6 days and 16 hours from San Francisco. On October 9 she passed the U. S. S. Philadelphia which signaled that all was well. On the night of the 6th, the second out from port, one of the steerage passengers gave birth to a child which was named Andree Australia Baroni.

The Australia brought 30 bags of mail, 45 cabin and 43 steerage passengers, prominent among whom were:

J. P. Blair, wife, child and nurse, who are making the round trip on the steamer for pleasure and health. Mr. Blair is one of the heads of the law department of the Southern Pacific railway and is a brother in law of General Manager Kruttschnitt of the same company.

A. J. Snyder is an Oakland real estate dealer who comes down with his wife on their bridal trip.

Willard E. Brown and wife, returning from a visit to relatives in the States. Mr. Brown was agreeably surprised on landing to find that a fortunate investment in Makaweli stock before he left has made him a good many thousand dollars richer than he was.

W. J. Callingham is a well-known San Francisco insurance man who has been here before.

John Grace, the well-known dairyman, returning from a business and pleasure trip to California with his wife.

Mrs. W. W. Hall, wife of the hardware merchant, and Miss Charlotte Hall, returning from a visit to relatives abroad.

F. H. Hayselden and W. H. Hayselden of Lanai, returning from a short business trip.

A. E. Murphy, who has been after a big stock of goods for his new store in the Arlington block, Hotel street.

Hugh Morrison, manager of the Hawaiian Sugar Co. at Makaweli, Kauai, returning from an extended vacation.

Rev. G. L. Pearson, lately assigned to the pastorate of the M. E. church here by the recent Methodist Conference. Mr. Pearson is accompanied by his wife and two children.

Miss Ida M. Pope, principal of the Kamehameha Girls' School, accompanied by Miss A. E. Pope, returning from a vacation.

Dr. J. H. Raymond, the popular young physician, returning from a pleasure trip.

Geo. H. Robertson, manager of the firm of Brewer & Co., who has been away on a business tour.

S. Roth, the wellknown tailor, who with his daughter has been spending a few weeks at the Coast.

H. M. Whitney, editor of the Planters' Monthly and the father of journalism in Hawaii.

Ex Representative E. C. Winston who returns after an extended business trip to California.
